Slaven's Effervescent California Fruit

Is prepared from sound, ripe fruit, by an experienced analytical chemist, who has spent years in experimenting on its preparation. It is manufactured by a special process known only to the proprietor. This preparation is a safe, simple and effective medicine for regulating the action of the stomach, liver and kidneys. It is most particularly recommended for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache, Heartburn, Acidity of the Stomach, Biliousness, Constipation, Nausea, Sea Sickness, Kidney and Liver troubles, Over-indulgence either in eating or drinking, etc. As a purifier of the blood in all Scrofulous Diseases, it has no equal. There is no adequate reason for believing any such story.

THE NATION'S DEAD.

The Chicago Tribune of yesterday said:

The death of President Garfield, though generally expected, notwithstanding the prayerful hopes of the civilized world during more than eleven weeks, will fall like a shock upon all. Long weeks of suffering have served, it such a thing were needed, to illustrate the Christian resignation, clear intellectual superiority and patient fortitude of this great man, the foremost statesman of his country. General Garfield died as Washington died: mourned by a nation of freemen, loved by his countrymen for the qualities that constitute a great man among the great men of the earth. He died as Lincoln died: the grief of his countrymen intensified by the horrible circumstances of his murder. He died as the pure and upright Christian would prefer to die, with unblemished record, wholly unimpaired of personal pain, and of the abrupt termination of the highest political distinction, and grieving only for a cherished wife and children, whose love and affection made his home an earthly heaven. Around his bedside the American people have for weeks gathered in sympathizing prayer, and to-day the same people will mingle their tears with those of his beloved mother and of his wife and children, as of a member of the common family mourning a common loss—a National calamity, a world-wide bereavement. During this long suspense the voice of faction has been silent. There has been no variance of opinion uttered. Each man has held the stricken ruler as a friend, the dying statesman and orator as a part of his country's glory, the suffering scholar, gentleman, son, father and husband, as of his own kindred. Honored during his most memorable life by the plaudits and free choice of his countrymen, his pathway from childhood, as student, teacher, soldier, statesman, orator and patriot, has been one succession of honorable victories, won by his bravery and his purity; but more honorable even than his illustrious life has been the great victory won upon his death-bed, the victory of a Christian, and father, and husband, and patriot over torturing pain, paralyzed ambition, and worldly honor, and heart-rending agony of domestic love and devotion. The great Chieflain is no more. The Executive of a great people has been ruthlessly stricken down in the very hour of his fame. Long will be lamented. Long will the atrocity of his fate be execrated, and in future times generations yet to follow will forever link the name of Garfield among the brightest and most glorious of the sons and the rulers of the American Republic.

THE NEXT HOUSE.

The democratic papers of the east are giving up their forlorn hope of seeing the next House controlled by the "great party." It is about time. A Republican member of Congress was elected on Monday in place of Frye, who resigned to accept the Senate seat vacant by the appointment of Mr. Blaine to the Secretaryship of State. There remain to be elected four New Yorkers in the place of Lapham, Miller and Morton (Republicans), resigned—the two former to take the Conkling and Platt places in the Senate, the latter to accept the mission to France—and Wood, deceased. These will not be chosen until the election in November. A Democrat will be chosen in Wood's place. Morton's district is doubtful, Lapham's and Miller's are reasonably certain for the Republicans. The number of Democrats in the House, claiming Wood's seat, will be 132: the number of Republicans, conceding the other vacancies to them, will be 147. The other seats, 14 in all, are mixed. William H. Forney of Alabama, Emory Spear of Georgia, George W. Jones of Texas, John Paul and Abram Fulkerson of Virginia, are called Independent Democrats. George W. Ladd of Maine, and James Mosgrove of Pennsylvania are designated Greenback Democrats.

Thompson H. Murch of Maine and Nichols Ford of New Jersey are straight Greenbackers. Ira S. Hazeltine, Thomas N. Rice and J. H. Burroughs of Missouri, Hyatt Smith of New York and Charles F. Brumm of Pennsylvania are Republican Greenbackers. The majority of the straight caucus Republicans over all oppositions is one, and strength can be received from the Republican Greenbackers who wish to stand well with the Administration. There is no doubt, therefore, that, if the situation remains the same, the Republicans will be able to organize the next House.

GARFIELD'S BIOGRAPHY.

On the 19th day of November, 1831 James Abram Garfield was born at Orange, fifteen miles from Mentor, Ohio. At the age of sixteen he was a common farm hand, but receiving full men's rates. At odd times he took contracts chopping wood, and even in these youthful days he was renowned for his superb physical condition. Then he commenced a new life, and his labors on the canals gave to him in after life the affectionate nickname of the "Canal Boy."

In March, 1849, Garfield went to school at the Geauga Seminary, supporting himself and paying tuition by doing odd chores and by saving up all the money he made by haying in vacation. From there he went to the Hiram Eclectic Institute and afterwards to Williams College, always meeting his own expenses. After graduating from the latter he became a Professor, and among the pupils was the lady who is now his wife. Towards the beginning of the civil war he was a State Senator, and when the dark cloud of internal strife burst upon the nation he was among the first in the van of the loyal defenders.

When he was General he was nominated from the Ninth District of Ohio, and there and on the field of battle—now speaking in the halls of legislation, and anon valiantly at the front—he showed those traits of invincible courage and honesty which have ever remained with him.

After the war was over he was time and time again returned to Congress. In his own district, where his people knew and loved him, his opponents were simply nonentities. When his personal bosom friend, James G. Blaine—the warmth of whose friendship was so great that they were often dubbed "Castor and Pollux," left the House for the Senate, Garfield became the recognized leader of the Republican party in the lower branch. In his conduct during the extra session of 1879 he showed the parliamentary ability of a Disraeli, and the eloquence of a Webster.

From the House he was chosen to the Senate, from the Senate to the Presidency. His shooting by Guitteau is still fresh in the minds of the public, and his nerve and pluck have been the theme of continued praise. He is dead, and the nation mourns him as she never mourned but once before, and never, we hope, will have to mourn again.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Lassen Advocate says: "We desire to make an exhibit of Lassen products at the Reno Fair, and any person having an extra quality of fruit will confer a favor by leaving them at this office. It will be a good advertisement of our produce, and bring our county into notice as a producer of the best varieties and quality of fruit and vegetables. We take the matter in hand for fear it will be otherwise neglected."

Senator Beck (Dem.) of Kentucky was recently credited with the remark that he would vote, in the event of the death of President Garfield, for a conservative Republican, such as Anthony of Rhode Island, for the position of President pro tem. of the Senate. As we expected, the remark was too statesmanlike for Beck, and he now retracts.

As soon as the news reached Reno, that the President was dead Nasby closed his bazaar without waiting to consult anybody. This was not much to do, but it was a credit to Mr. Krause's head and heart, and is so acknowledged by his fellow citizens.

Carson Tribune: "W. T. Hanford, Deputy Controller under Hobart, is an out and out candidate for Secretary of State. He desires the Republican nomination."

The Carson Index and other stalwarts have probably just learned that there was "doubt of Garfield's recovery."

BY TELEGRAPH.

Official Announcement of the Sad Event.

ELBERON, September 20, 1:15 A. M.

The following has just been issued: ELBERON, September 20, 11:30 A. M.

The President died at 10:35 P. M. After the bulletin was issued at 5:30 this evening the President continued in much the same condition as during the afternoon, the pulse varying from 102 to 106, with rather increased force and volume. After taking nourishment he fell into a quiet sleep about thirty-five minutes before his death, and while asleep his pulse rose to 120, and was somewhat more feeble. At ten minutes past ten he awoke, complaining of severe pain over the region of the heart, and almost immediately became unconscious, and ceased to breathe at 10:30. D. W. Bliss, Frank H. Hamilton, D. Hayes Agnew.

Boynston's Account of the Death Scene.

NEW YORK, Sep. 20.

Boynston gives the following account of the death-scene: He had been sleeping quietly until about fifteen minutes before death. I stepped into the room to examine his pulse and found it had grown much weaker, but not alarmingly so. I remarked it to Swain. The President said to Swain: "Oh, Swain, what a terrible pain I have here," and placed his hand upon his breast over his heart. The doctors and members of the family had by that time gathered, and a colored man stood at the door. There was scarcely a movement in any other than the sufferer's features, and no movement of the lines. His pulse grew less frequent. Agnew bent over him and examined the pulse. He found no pulse, I put my ear down to the heart, but discovered no pulse. Mrs. Garfield placed her hand upon his chest, partly bending over him until he died. All of us sat there a little while.

The Saddest Picture in the National Tragedy.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 20.

The Herald says: The solemn news was broken to Grandma Garfield about 9 o'clock this forenoon. At first she was much shocked, but soon came to, and looking calmly, said: "It is all for the best, if the people are ready for it. It is not possible that my son James is dead. I do not wish to live any longer. I will soon be with him."

ELBERON, Sept. 20, 1:25 P. M.—President Arthur was well received by the people and seemed well pleased by the reception accorded him. He was met at the station by about fifty carriages, which accompanied him to Elberon.

ELBERON, Sept. 20, 2:15 P. M.—The embalmer has arrived and the body of the President is being embalmed.

Extreme Emaciation of the President.

NEW YORK, September 20.

Private Secretary Brown says that the extreme emaciation of the President was a surprise to the undertaker and embalmer. It is possible to clasp the leg above the knee with one hand. There are some doubts, if the President lies in state at Washington, it will be deemed wise to show the remains.

Guitteau Wanted.

NEW YORK, September 20.

A Long Branch correspondent of the Brooklyn Eagle says: It is ascertained from the Sheriff of Monmouth that Guitteau will have to be brought here at once before the Coroner's jury. The coroner can view the body and let it go, but Guitteau must be produced at once. New Jersey law is very strict on that point, and Jersey-men evidently want Guitteau.

The Autopsy—Death Was Inevitable.

WASHINGTON, September 20.

An autopsy has been in progress for more than an hour. One of the first discoveries made was a large clot of blood in the heart, which corroborated the opinion of the attending surgeons regarding the immediate cause of death.

The statement that the ball was found in the region of the heart has been verified. It is stated on authority that the developments of the autopsy show that death was inevitable, and the President's life was only sustained by the most excellent nourishment and constant care.

At Elberon To-day.

Special to the Gazette.

ELBERON, Sept. 21, 8:30 A. M.

It is understood that President Arthur has determined to go through to Cleveland in company with the Cabinet. An additional guard has been placed around Franklyn cottage for the purpose of preserving order. Hundreds of people are arriving momentarily. The engine and coaches are now in readiness to start and the entire train is heavily draped in mourning, and presents a funeral appearance. Crowds of new arrivals surge into the surrounding grounds every moment. Ocean avenue, for two blocks in either direction, is blockaded with vehicles. This large gathering is composed of all classes, and is very quiet and appreciative.

OREGON.

The body of Frank Spaulding, who fell into the Willamette river and disappeared a few days ago, was recovered Monday with his neck broken.

A week ago a Portland horse-trainer named Dustin agreed to train Martin Stanborn's blood colt, and on securing the animal disappeared with it and has not been seen since.

There is blackleg in Sikan Valley, Southern Oregon. The cattle in that section are being attacked, and a great many are dying from it. One rancher says he counted twenty carcasses in Sikan valley in a very short distance.

WORTHLESS STUFF.

Not so fast, my friend: if you could see the strong, healthy, blooming men, women and children that have been raised from beds of sickness, suffering and almost death by the use of Hop Bitters, you would say "Glorious and invaluable remedy." See another column.

Surprise Valley Flour.

Ayer and Bucher have begun to ship flour from their mill at Bidwell to Reno. They have their fine, new four-story mill running, and can turn out as good flour as any there is made. The wheat raised in Surprise is of a superior quality, and makes good bread. Jerry Schooling has orders in for ten thousand pounds. It will go out as fast as teams can be got. Geo. Wimer is refitting his mill at Lake City, putting in a new turbine wheel, a new run of bars, purifier, smutter, etc., at a cost of over $2,000. The Cedarville mill, owned by Wm. Drouillard, is a steam mill of 25 horse power. It grinds 3,500 pounds a day.

Good Hunters.

J. M. Ward, Rincerson, and B. F.
Randolph, of Ft. Bidwell, went to old Camp Warner recently. They were gone two weeks, and shot eighteen bucks, a mountain sheep and five ante-lopes. They are smoking the meat.

FIRE ON THE MEADOWS.

Lagomarsino's Dwelling House Destroyed by Fire—A Visitor Who Lost All His Valuables.

On Sunday morning last, about 10 o'clock the dwelling-house on the ranch of L. M. Lagomarsino & Co., about seven miles from Reno, was destroyed by fire, together with its contents. At the time the fire broke out the owners were out in a field getting in their hay crop. A man who was on a load of hay called out to his companions below that there was something wrong at the house, as he saw smoke coming out of the end opposite that at which the stovepipe was situated. A race to the house ensued. The first man to reach it threw open the door, when the flames poured out and drove him back. About a dozen men tried in various ways to get into the house to save their clothes and other effects, but everything was destroyed. According to the Enterprise nothing was saved except three small cheeses that were in the cellar.
The owners of the ranch say they have not attempted to figure up their loss.
In the cellar was stowed away the seed-wheat for next year, thirty sacks of dried peas put away for seed, and a large quantity of butter, cheese, milk, and tools and utensils of various kinds. Had the fire reached the barn, however, the loss would have been ten times what it was. Through saving a large chicken house, which stood midway between house and barn, the latter was saved, water being carried in buckets from a creek that runs past the building. B. Dellepiane of Virginia was visiting Lagomarsino at the time. While he was out hunting, the house of his friend was destroyed by fire and with it his overcoat, his insurance papers and other valuable papers, a lot of underclothing and all the money he carried with him, except a silver dollar, which he took out of the ruins.

A Temperance Saloon.

M. N. Feghtly and Gabe Hoskins are about to open a temperance saloon in Cedarville, Modoc county. There is no place now for young men to go in the evenings, except the saloons.
The new firm will keep a general reading and music room. They will have an orchestra of first and second violin, cornet, clarinet, piano and double bass; also a brass band of sixteen pieces. They will have a billiard table and a large assortment of papers and magazines. There will be a little counter and shelves at one end, where they will dispense candies, nuts, ice cream, soda water, lemonade, etc.
Ladies will be made welcome, and enjoy all the privileges.

Something that Ought to be Patron- ized.

The carpet renovating company is in town, and will be ready to take orders to clean carpets on the floor without removing, and bring their colors back to their original brightness. Mr. Heller will call upon you and receive orders. The work is a success and they have lots of testimonials in regard to the character of their work. Address I. Heller, Reno, by postal-card.

Railroad Repairs.

Eighteen carpenters under foreman Spear are building snow sheds at Tunnel No. 13 on the C. P. Thirteen of these men were on the hand car when it collided with the freight train on Thursday evening last. Only one man out of the thirteen, E. B. Giles, of Reno, escaped without bruises. R.
F. Hoy and R. C. Johnson, of this place were also on the car, but were not much injured.

Rip Van Winkle.

The Robert McWade Rip Van Winkle troupe will occupy the Nevada Theater on Monday, September 26th.
He is a noted star, and the version of "Rip Van Winkle" which he plays is his own dramatization, and is entirely distinct from all others, and has been played by him for fourteen years, in every city of America, from Boston to San Francisco, including New York and Philadelphia.

Funeral Services.

Last night about 12 o'clock poor, patient old Nathan Seely, after suffering for years, passed away. Many have sympathized heartily with his long affliction and are glad that he is now at rest. There was no hope of life and he has been a dying man since that fatal cancer first took hold upon his face. He will be buried from the Episcopal church to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

EQUALIZATION.

Proceedings of the County Commissioners in Reviewing the Assessment Roll.

The Board of County Commissioners met at the office of the County Clerk at 10 o'clock Monday morning

On account of the President's death the Board adjourned over Tuesday.

reduced to $500. So ordered.

G. W. Avansino appeared and asked that his assessment on real property of $500 be reduced to $200. So ordered.

Ordered that the following citations be issued, commanding the parties to not be raised to the following Circuit Court meets October 3d, is incorrect. That Court meets on the meets October 3d.

Suits For Damage.

Wiggins, of Lakeview, Oregon, has begun three suits against Ayers & Calderwood for damages to his wife and boy by the stage upsetting last fall.

The stage was turned over by a whirlwind, and Mrs. Wiggins was thrown out and had some bones broken; but they are all right now. The whirlwind took out three panels from a post and board fence by the roadside.
W. A. Morrison was driver. A dozen men saw the accident. The amounts claimed amount to $12,000. Wiggins has Kelton of Lakeview, and Barnes of Alturas. Ayers & Calderwood have F. W. Ewing of Alturas, and Spargur of Lake City.

Auburn Mill.

The first car of lumber for the Auburn Consolidated mill at Dun Glen, arrived at Mill City Monday. A millwright from Chicago was expected there yesterday.

THE SACRAMENTO FAIR.

Second Day of the Meeting—Maggie C.
Wins the 2:27 Purse.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 20.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—We had the first grand parade this morning. It was fine, and there was stock enough to reach entirely around the one-mile race track. I counted ninety-eight head of cattle, of all grades, and some of them, in fact most of them, were beauties of their kind. There were six double carriage teams, but finer stock can be seen in Golden Gate Park almost any day. Still, some of them were handsome teams, but the driving was not good. Seventeen single horses harnessed to sulkeys and other wheeled vehicles of various devices; seventy-one head of mares and colts of all grades, and some of the handsomest colts I ever saw at any State or county fair. Fifteen stallions were in the parade, and some of them were beauties. Six "quadrupled" jackasses followed in the rear. The stock parade was all we had this forenoon.

The city is being draped in mourning for the President. The flags are all at half mast.

The racing to-day is all trotting. In the first race five horses were entered, viz: Louis D., Little Bell, Kitty Thorne, Star King and Empress.
Star King won the first heat in 2:32, and also the second heat in 2:27.

In the second race four horses were entered, viz: Ashley, Batman, Abbotsford and Brigadier. Brigadier won the first heat in 2:25. It was a good race, all coming in even and under the whip. There is a live man managing the races to-day, and the races are called quickly, the second race being called while the first is cooling off.

The second heat in the second race has just ended, and it was as fine a heat as I ever saw, all four horses coming in neck and neck. Bateman won in 2:25 1/4.

I am writing on the fair ground today, as it is all the time I have. There are at least eight people on the ground to-day to one yesterday. The weather is cool and fine.

Empress won the third heat in the first race in 2:28. She also won the fourth heat in the same race in 2:34.
Abbotsford won the third heat in the second race in 5:25.

Empress won the fourth heat in the first race and the first money, Star King second.

The manager of the races to-day is very stern, and orders the drivers out of their sulkeys and another one in at the least sign of a foul.

Abbotsford won the fourth heat in the second race in 2:28.

The third race is between colts foaled in 1878 for a purse of $400 against time. Albert W. goes first.
Time 2:54.

Abbotsford won the fifth heat in second race in 2:26 1/4, and the first money, Brigadier second, and Ashley third.

The fourth race is between Maggie C. and Echora. Maggie C. won first heat in 2:25.

The third race seems to be over.
Only one horse contested, and of course won the purse.

Maggie C. wins second heat in fourth race in 2:26 1/4, and money.

M. FRITCHARD.

Gen. Hagerman's New Store.

Lake City is handsomely located on a creek that comes down from the high mountains between Surprise and Goose Lake valleys. A single file of large pine trees, extending up and down the bank, makes it a conspicuous object from any part of the country. The settlement consists of very fine grain and hay ranches, about as large as the Truckee meadows, and new land is being added all the time.
It is nine miles north of Cedarville and sixteen miles south of Bidwell. The ranchers are well-to-do, and their trade is highly desirable. Over the mountain, in Goose Lake valley, is an extensive settlement called Davis Creek, which will come there to trade. The people look upon the new store as a great acquisition to their accommodations, and it will be heartily welcomed.
It is bound to do a large business. It will go into W. P. Hayes' building, on the north end of the street and on the west side.

A Successful Experiment.

E. Smalls put in a piece of sagebrush land at Cedarville last fall, and without any irrigation at all raised 60 bushels of barley to the acre. This shows that irrigation is not indispen-sible, and may lead to big results, as there is an empire of sagebrush land in the valley.

TOO MANY EDITIONS.

An Undertaker Who Had a Trip to the Country for Nothing.

Under the head of "Death of J. D.
Pollard," the GAZETTE's contemporary, in its regular morning edition, publishes the following:

J. D. Pollard died on Monday evening at his home near Glendale. For years he has been affected with heart disease, and at last it took him off.
Pollard was an early pioneer on this coast, and for a long time lived at Donner lake. At a later period he managed the Pollard House in Reno, but of late years he has been engaged in ranching; He was a good citizen, a loving husband and father, and all who were acquainted with him will regret his demise.

Friends of Mr. Pollard desire the GAZETTE to make some slight corrections in the above statement. It is true that Mr. Pollard has been ill for some time, but nothing had "taken him off," up to the GAZETTE's press hour to-day. Mr. Pollard is still ill, but there are many friends who hope for, and still expect his recovery. The GAZETTE cordially endorses the good words which are said of Mr. Pollard above, and more could be added without exaggeration. For these reasons, the GAZETTE wishes earnestly for the sick man's recovery. When the undertaker read his morning edition of the morning paper, he made his usual trip of condolence, but found himself the victim of too many editions.

Call for a Public Meeting.

At the request of many citizens the GAZETTE calls upon the people of Reno to meet at Reform Club Hall to agree upon some plan for a public observance of President Garfield's death.
The cities and towns of California are holding similar meetings, and it is hoped that every good citizen will join in some appropriate idea which may express the sorrow and profound respect which we all feel. The GAZ-ETTE hopes to see Reno's business men well represented at the meeting in Reform Club Hall to-night at 7:30.

More New Purchases.

The stock of the Mechanics' Store has at last been nearly cleared out.
The low prices and fair dealing which obtains at that place naturally attracted the people, and as a consequence the large stock of thirty days ago needs replenishing. S. Peyser will attend to the new purchases and goes to San Francisco to-night for that purpose. Meanwhile the sale of remnants goes on as usual.

Memorial Services.

Memorial services will be held in the Baptist Church Sunday night.
The members of the Grand Army of the Republic, and all the old soldiers have been invited and will probably attend in a body. Appropriate singing will be given under the direction of Professor Stimson.

A Remarkable Concession.

(GAZETTE's Contemporary, Sep. 21st.) It is conceded that the Journal, in its regular issue of yesterday morning and special edition of yesterday afternoon, gave the best reports of the news of the day.

Beautifiers.

Ladies, you cannot make fair skin, rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes with all the cosmetics of France or beautifiers of the world, while in poor health, and nothing will give you such good health, strength, buoyant spirits and beauty as Roy Bitters. A trial is certain proof. See another column.

Rescued From Death

William J. Conklin, of Somerville, Mass., says: In the fall of 1878 I was taken with a severe attack of the kidneys, followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and flesh, and was confined to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the Hospital. The doctor said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half dollar. At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of WILLIAM HALL'S BALM FOR THE LUNGS. I got a bottle, when to my surprise, I commenced to feel better, and to-day I feel better than I have for three years past. I write this hoping every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will take DR. WILLIAM HALL'S BALM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I can positively say it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness.

Free Masonry is as a rule with emotion in England. The Prince of Wales has just issued, under his sign manual, his warrant for the formation of a new lodge of Free Masons, to be called "The Gallery Lodge." This lodge is to be confined exclusively to journalists and gallery reporters, and his Royal Highness has sanctioned the appointment of Mr. H. Massey as first Master, Mr. F. Bussey as first Senior Warden, and Mr. Thomas Nussell as first Junior Warden. The want of such a privilege has long been felt.
